4. Services

1. Copy Trading Service is a service that allows Investors to copy trades from Traders and can be activated by selecting the "Start Copying" option in the Back Office.
2. The Trader conducts trading operations in personal Trading Accounts which are valid to subscribe for Copy Trading Service. All transactions and trading operations on Trader's Trading Account shall be performed according to the Client Agreement.
3. The trades conducted within the scope of Strategy are copied onto the Investor's account. Copying a trade shall mean a simultaneous opening/closure of trade on the same trading instrument, of the same type (Buy or Sell) under the settings and parameters of the chosen Strategy and particular Investment.
4. Copy Trading Service is only available for Trading Accounts on MetaTrader 4 Trading Platform.

5. Investor and Investor Wallet

1. The Client has a right to apply for Copy Trading Service as Investor by opening an Investor Wallet from the Back Office.
2. After opening the Investor Wallet, the Investor can make a deposit to Investor Wallet as to any other Trading Account using any available deposit method. The minimum deposit amount to the Investor Wallet is $25.
3. The Investor can start to copy any Strategy that he or she can choose in the Back Office by making a relevant amount of Investment but in any case, not less than Minimum Investment. The Investor can also once when started copying the Strategy add to the Minimum Investment funds as a Support Amount. It's not possible to add more Support Amount in the future.
4. The Investor hereby agrees to the following:
 - 4.1. To authorise and instruct the Trader to act on his behalf in accordance with the specific Strategy in connection to the Investment;
 - 4.2. To authorise and instruct the Company to take any necessary action to follow the Strategy of the Trader selected by the Investor;
 - 4.3. To authorise and instruct the Company to make Settlement.
5. The Investor indicated the exact amount of funds from Investor Wallet to be used for the Investment. The minimum amount of Investment is $25 can be more according to the Trader's settings and parameters. The amount of Investment cannot exceed the equity on the Investor Wallet.
6. The Investor copies the trades that the Trader opened only after subscription for the Trader within the Copy Trading Service.
7. Once the service is activated, the trades will be copied to the Investor Account, whether the owner of the account is signed in or not.
8. The Investor's order is executed following the Trader's order (Buy or Sell) made in his or her account. The signal for opening an order in the Investor Account triggers when the Trader places an order, and such Investor order is executed at the market price. The same mechanism triggers the order closing. Therefore, the execution prices of these orders may differ. Additionally, the number of Investors following this Trader can affect the execution time.
9. The Investor can copy any number of Strategies and any number of Traders.
10. The Investor can edit the parameters of copying via the Edit function both before investing with a Trader and in the course of copying trades.
11. Details and/or information regarding the Investor's trading activities while using the Copy Trading Service and performance according to the chosen Strategies should be available from the Investor's Back Office.

12. The Investor can choose the Copy Mode between three pre-set values or choose Custom Copy Mode between 0.01 and 9999 to define the ratio according to which the trading volumes of the Strategy shall be copied onto the Investor's account. The Copy Mode value can be other than 1, that means the volume of trading on the Investor's account shall be calculated as follows:

Example 1: Investor sets Double ($\times 2$) multiplier, and one lot trade is opened on the Trader Account. The volume of the copied trade will be: $1 \text{ lot} \times 2 \text{ multipliers} = 2 \text{ lots}$.

Example 2: Investor sets Custom ($\times 0.5$) multiplier, and one lot trade is opened on the Trader Account. The volume of the copied trade will be: $1 \text{ lot} \times 0.5 \text{ multipliers} = 0.5 \text{ lot}$.

The Copy Mode value can be 1, in which case all trading volumes of the chosen Strategy shall be copied onto the Investor's account in the same amount.

For example:

Trader Order volume = 2 Lot

Investor Order volume = 2 Lot

The Investor can change the Copy Mode value at any time, but adjustment shall be applicable only to new trades open after the switch.

13. The volume of any order is rounded to the nearest hundredth decimal point (the second digit after the decimal). For instance, if the Investor copies an order for 0.324 lots, the order will be rounded down to 0.32 lots. Vice versa, if the Investor copies an order for 0.325 lots, the order will be rounded up to 0.33 lots.
14. The Investor assumes power of responsibility for providing enough funds for executing orders and maintaining positions in the account according to the chosen Copy Mode value.
15. The Investor can add funds from Investor Wallet to any Investment at any time.
16. The Investor can stop following Strategy at any time during the market hours by clicking "Stop Copying" and the relevant Orders shall be closed at market price by reducing Investment. The Investor can never reduce Investment less than the applicable Minimum Investment amount unless reducing to zero which means to stop copying the Strategy.
17. The Investor can view a trading summary and trading history from the Back Office, where the Investor will see all transactions and trades copied with the respective amount of profit or loss. Limit Orders such as Stop Loss or Take Profit of Traders will not be shown to Investors, however, if they are set and then they would be executed, the Investor will see the same being executed as respective Buy or Sell order.
18. The Investor's account leverage is set at 1:500 by default and it's not possible to change the leverage on the Investor's account.

19. The Investor cannot independently close or modify the trades copied from the Trader's account.
20. Stop loss/take profit orders are not visible in the Investor Area, but if these orders are triggered on the Trader Account, the copied trades are also closed.
21. The Investors do not have access to the trading terminal. All actions with their subscriptions and trades are available in the Investor Area.
22. The Investor acknowledges and agrees that the Trader can make both profitable and losing trades, and the Copy Trading Service does not affect it.
