1.4 These Bonus Terms & Conditions (the "Terms") supplement, and are subject to, the Client Agreement. In the event of any inconsistency, the Client Agreement shall prevail except where these Terms expressly state otherwise in relation to the Bonus.

2. Legal Nature of the Bonus

2.1 The Bonus is a promotional trading credit which is:

- Granted at the sole and absolute discretion of the Company
- Not part of the Client's own funds and not owned by the Client
- Non-withdrawable, non-transferable and not redeemable for cash
- Provided for trading margin support only

2.2 The Bonus:

- Does not alter pricing, spreads, swaps, commissions or execution quality
- Does not constitute investment advice or a recommendation to trade
- Does not modify the Client Agreement
- Does not reduce, limit or insure against trading risk

2.3 The Company reserves the right to withdraw, modify, suspend or discontinue the Bonus or any promotion at any time, with or without notice, in accordance with the Client Agreement.

3. Eligibility

3.1 Eligibility is assessed on a user-level basis. A Client holding multiple trading accounts is treated as a single Client for the purposes of the First Deposit Bonus and any aggregate cap.

3.2 Clients under PAMM, MAM, copy-trading or similar managed arrangements are ineligible unless explicitly approved by the Company in writing.

3.3 The Bonus may be unavailable to residents of certain jurisdictions. The Company may decline to grant the Bonus to any Client without providing reasons.

4. Bonus Structure

4.1 First Deposit Bonus. A Client's first qualifying deposit (the "First Deposit") shall attract a Bonus equal to 150% of the First Deposit amount, subject to a maximum Bonus of USD 750 (or currency equivalent).

4.2 Subsequent Deposit Bonus. Each qualifying deposit made after the First Deposit shall attract a Bonus equal to 25% of the deposit amount, subject to any cap disclosed for the relevant campaign.

4.3 "First Deposit" means the first successful deposit of own funds credited to a Client's trading account following account approval, assessed at user level and not per trading account.

4.4 Total active Bonus credit per Client shall not exceed USD 10,000 (or currency equivalent) at any time unless otherwise specified by the Company.

4.5 The Bonus is credited to the trading account into which the qualifying deposit is made and will be reflected as credit, separately from the Client's balance.

4.6 The Company may specify additional conditions for any campaign, including minimum deposit amounts, eligible account types, payment methods, currencies or promotional periods. Where such conditions are specified, they form part of these Terms.

4.7 The Company may adjust leverage or margin requirements for accounts participating in promotional campaigns where required for risk management purposes.

5. Treatment of Bonus Credit on the Account

5.1 The Bonus is a credit facility made available to the Client for margin purposes. Subject to clause 5.2, the manner in which Bonus credit is applied to, held on, or removed from a trading account – including its interaction with account balance, equity, floating profit or loss, margin level, margin call and stop-out – is determined by the Company's trading system configuration and prevailing bonus policy in force from time to time, which the Company may set, vary or apply differently between campaigns, account types or Clients at its discretion.

5.2 The Bonus is non-losable. Trading losses are deducted only from the Client's own funds held in the Account Balance and are never deducted from, offset against or absorbed by Bonus credit. The Bonus cannot be used to cover losses that exceed the Client's Account Balance. Where trading losses reduce the Client's Account Balance to zero, the Bonus shall be removed in full and any open positions may be closed in accordance with the stop-out rules.

5.3 Save as set out in clause 5.2, the Company makes no representation, warranty or commitment as to whether Bonus credit will be preserved, reduced or removed in any particular circumstance. Nothing in these Terms or in any promotional material shall be construed as a guarantee, insurance, protection or indemnity against trading losses.

5.4 The Client acknowledges and agrees that:

- Losses are deducted from the Account Balance in accordance with the Client Agreement and trading system rules
- The Client may lose the entirety of the Client's own deposited funds irrespective of whether Bonus credit was, is or was not available on the account
- The Client has no proprietary right, claim or entitlement to Bonus credit at any time
- The Client shall have no claim against the Company arising from the application, non-application, reduction or removal of Bonus credit, or from the manner in which Bonus credit was treated in any trading, margin or stop-out event

5.5 Bonus credit shall not, under any circumstances, result in the Client's balance becoming negative or in any amount being owed by the Company to the Client. Any residual negative balance arising after the removal of Bonus credit shall be handled in accordance with the Client Agreement.

6. Deduction and Removal of Bonus

6.1 The Company may deduct or remove the Bonus, in whole or in part, immediately and without prior notice where:

- The Client withdraws or internally transfers any part of the qualifying deposit
- Abusive or prohibited conduct is identified or confirmed
- The account becomes inactive for a period determined by the Company
- Regulatory, compliance, AML or source-of-funds concerns are identified
- The promotion is withdrawn, modified or discontinued
- The Company otherwise determines removal to be appropriate in its discretion

6.2 Upon deduction, open positions may be automatically closed if margin levels fall below required thresholds. The Company shall not be liable for any resulting losses.

6.3 Removal of the Bonus does not extinguish any outstanding losses, liabilities or obligations of the Client.

7. Withdrawals

7.1 The Bonus is non-withdrawable and cannot be converted into cash under any circumstances.

7.2 Profits generated on an account holding Bonus credit may be withdrawn subject to:

- No abusive or prohibited conduct being detected
- Compliance clearance and AML review
- Standard withdrawal procedures under the Client Agreement

7.3 Any withdrawal or internal transfer of deposited funds results in automatic proportional or full deduction of the Bonus at the Company's discretion. The Client is responsible for ensuring sufficient margin remains following such deduction.

8. Abusive or Prohibited Conduct

8.1 The following are strictly prohibited:

- Opposing positions across multiple accounts under common control or coordination
- Circular or wash trading
- Churning or trading solely to unlock, retain or extract benefits
- Latency arbitrage or exploitation of pricing errors targeting Bonus exposure
- Quote manipulation or exploitation of low-liquidity windows

- Coordinated account behaviour or use of accounts held by third parties
- Structuring deposits or withdrawals to game promotional thresholds
- Opening multiple accounts or using false or duplicate identities to obtain more than one First Deposit Bonus

9. Compliance Safeguards

9.1 Participation in the Bonus does not override the Risk Disclosure, Conflicts of Interest Policy, Client Agreement or the Company's AML obligations.

9.2 The Company may suspend or withhold the Bonus or associated benefits where AML, source-of-funds, sanctions or ongoing monitoring concerns arise.

10. Governing Law and Jurisdiction

10.1 These Terms are governed by the laws of Saint Vincent and the Grenadines.

10.2 Any dispute arising out of or in connection with these Terms shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of Saint Vincent and the Grenadines.

11. Limitation of Liability

11.1 The Company's aggregate liability in relation to the Bonus or any promotion:

- Shall not exceed the Client's net deposited funds
- Excludes indirect, consequential, special or opportunity losses, including loss of profits
- Excludes any loss arising from the application, non-application, reduction or removal of Bonus credit
- Is subject to the limitations set out in the Client Agreement

12. General

12.1 By accepting the Bonus, the Client confirms that they have read, understood and agreed to these Terms.

12.2 The Company may amend these Terms at any time. The version published on the Company's website at the time the Bonus is credited applies to that Bonus.

12.3 If any provision of these Terms is held to be invalid or unenforceable, the remaining provisions shall continue in full force and effect.

12.4 These Terms are provided in English. Where translated, the English version shall prevail.
